

Date: Thursday, 30 October 2014

Place: Archaeological Research Unit, 12 Gladstonos st., Nicosia 1095,

Lecture Theatre (number 006)

Day Conference:

Cypriot-Jewish Relations. Historical and International Relations perspectives.

Welcome 0945-1000

Dr. G. Kazamias, Department of History and Archaeology, University of Cyprus
HE Mr. Michael Harari, Ambassador of the State of Israel in Cyprus

Session 1, 1000-1050

Chair: Dr. George Kazamias

Prof. Yossi Ben Arzi, Ideology, business, and geo- politics: Jewish rural settlement in Cyprus 1883- 1939

Ms. Evangelia Mathopoulou, Pioneers in a stagnant economy: Jewish presence in British Cyprus, 1899-1939

Discussion, 1050-1100

Session 2, 1100-1150

Chair: Prof. Amikam Nachmani

Dr. Manolis Koumas, Cyprus and the Arab-Israeli conflict, 1967-1973

Dr. Giorgos Antoniou - Dr. George Kazamias, Global affairs in a local context: Cypriot Press and the Six Day War

Discussion, 1150-1200

Session 3, 1200-1300

Chair: Prof. Yossi Ben Artzi

Prof. George Th. Mavrogordatos, Cypriots and Jews in *Exodus (Otto Preminger, 1960)

Dr. Anastasia Hamatsou, The Jewish Presence in Cypriot Historiography

Prof. Amikam Nachmani, Greece, Cyprus, Israel, Turkey: Dramatic changes, dramatic chances in the East Mediterranean

Discussion, 1300-1330

Lunch Break 1400-1630

Session 4, Roundtable Discussion 1700-1900

Introduction, by the moderator, Prof. Constantinos Christofides, Rector of the University of Cyprus

HE Mr. Leonidas Pandelides, Ambassador, Director of Middle East and North Africa Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Cyprus

HE Mr. Michael Harari, Ambassador of the State of Israel in Cyprus