

Why a debate about Future of Europe?

Challenges ahead:

Europe's share of global GDP is shrinking

	2004	2015
United States of America	28%	24%	↘
EU27	26%	22%	↘
Japan	11%	6%	↘
UK	5%	4%	↘
China	5%	15%	↗
Canada	2%	2%	→
Mexico	2%	2%	→
Brazil	<2%	2%	↗
India	<2%	3%	↗
Rest of the world	18%	21%	↗

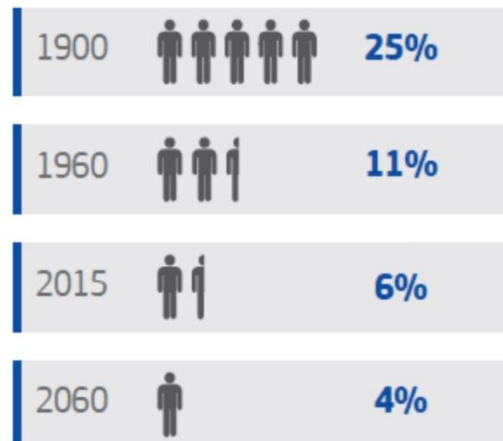

Source: Eurostat and UN Statistical Division

Why a debate about Future of Europe?

Challenges ahead:

Europe represents a falling share of the world population

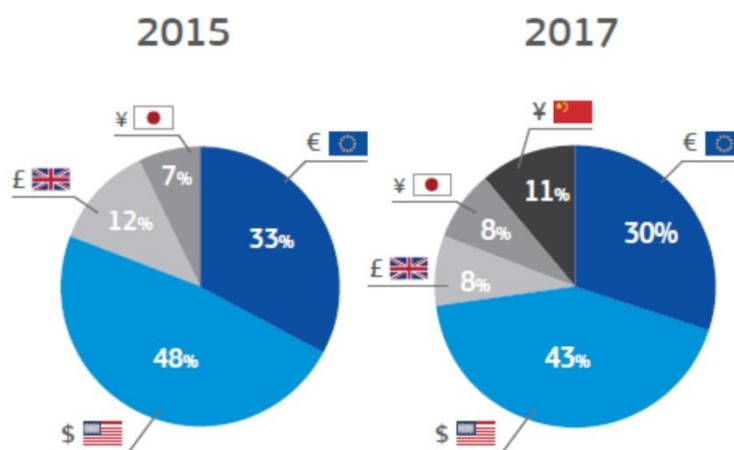

Source: UN Statistical Division and Eurostat, EU27

Why a debate about Future of Europe?

Challenges ahead:

The euro is now a global currency but other players are gaining weight

Why a debate about Future of Europe?

Challenges ahead:

Europe is home to the most equal societies in the world

Note: This graph shows the distribution of income between individuals using the Gini coefficient where 0 represents perfect equality.

Source: OECD, latest available data